City holds auditions for opera camp

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The City of Riverside is holding auditions for aspiring opera singers from 3 to 8 p.m., Sunday, at the César Chávez Community Center, 2060 University Ave.

Those selected will participate in an upcoming free youth summer camp and adult master class at the community center, July 14-18.

The youth camp is open to middle school and high school students. Some singing experience is required. The adult class is open for ages 18 and up. Substantial experience is required. Singers will be given five minutes to perform at the audition.

Those chosen for youth camp will participate in four days of vocal, acting and movement classes. The evening adult classes will focus on sharpening singing skills with small groups and professional instructors.

The classes all culminate with a free performance open to the public from 5 to 7 p.m., July 19 at the community center.
